DISPLAYS POLICY

Approved: June 17, 2009
Amended: January 18, 2012
Reapproved: January 21, 2015, January 17, 2018

- Prior arrangements for all displays must be made with the Adult Programming Manager.
- Displays must fit in a library display case, without modification, or on library art display grids.
- Displays, including those containing particular religious, political, social or other points of view, will be accepted only if they feature public service, cultural or historic information.
- Displays will not be accepted which advocate an affirmative or negative vote for or against any candidate or proposition, political or otherwise.
- Displays will not be accepted which advocate or solicit consideration of any product or item sold by any commercial or charitable enterprise. Event charges are acceptable and must be included on displays. Artistic displays may list the sale price of the item.
- The sponsoring agency must be indicated on the display.
- Displays in the Library do not constitute an endorsement by the Library of program content or the views expressed by the participants.
- The library assumes no responsibility for the preservation or protection of displays nor for the possible damage or theft of any item in a display. Items that have been defaced will be removed.
- Groups/individuals who do not remove displays by the appointed date may forfeit future use of Library display cases.
- Donation boxes which accompany displays will not be accepted unless they directly benefit local service organizations or local populations.
